

Santa Clara University School of Law Oxford Summer Law Program
June 27 (check in date), Law Tutorial and Lecture Program
June 28 through July 27, 2018
Tentative Detailed Schedule

Program Director: Professor Catherine Sandoval, Santa Clara University School of Law (csandoval@scu.edu)

Wednesday, June 27

Arrive in the United Kingdom and travel to Oxford. The nearest Airport to Oxford University is London Heathrow where international flights arrive at Terminal 5. You may also fly into London Gatwick which is also accessible by bus to Oxford but farther than Heathrow.

Airport transfer to Oxford: Students can book online for a bus transport from the airport to Oxford. The Oxford Bus Company, The Airline, has buses from Heathrow or Gatwick direct to Oxford and return trips: <https://airline.oxfordbus.co.uk/>. The National Express also runs buses from Heathrow or Gatwick direct to Oxford and return: <https://www.busbud.com/en/bus-heathrow-oxford/r/gcpsv9-gcpn7m>. You may find other transport companies online but the Program Director has had good experience with these companies. Tickets can be booked up to 36 hours in advance, but advanced booking is recommended to reserve a seat. The closest exit to Magdalen College is at the High Street at Queen's Lane, a one block walk to Magdalen College. Alternatively, you can exit at the final bus stop at the Gloucester Green bus station and take a taxi to Magdalen College at the taxi stand (walk through the market area to the taxi line). The bus ride takes approximately 80 minutes. You should be at the bus stop at the airport or in Oxford at least 20 minutes prior to the scheduled departure to ensure you make the bus. The bus companies recommend arriving at the airport one hour before your scheduled airline check-in opening for your departure from the U.K. If you arrive at Oxford by train you will find a taxi next to the train station. Take the taxi to Magdalen College, High Street entrance.

My husband and I took a bus to and from Oxford through the Oxford Bus Company, The Airline, <https://airline.oxfordbus.co.uk/> when we attended the 40th Anniversary of Women Rhodes Scholars Reunion at Oxford University in September 2017. The bus was convenient, clean, and speedy and we plan to use it for our air transfers to and from Oxford this summer. A taxi from Heathrow to Oxford will cost over $100, and more from Gatwick. I took the airport bus when I was a student at Oxford, when I visited in September 2017, and plan to do so for our summer law program at Oxford.

Pronunciation guide: Please note that Magdalen College's name is pronounced like the word "maudlin," though you will find Magdalen a joyous and beautiful place with a deer park! Gloucester Green is pronounced like “Glouster” Green. By the time you leave you’ll speak the Queen’s English!

Arrive at Magdalen College, Oxford. Enter on High Street and introduce yourself to the Porters (official gatekeepers of the college). They will direct you to the Archway Seminar Room where you will check in for the Santa Clara University School of Law Summer Law Program at Oxford University.

Check in with the Program Director. 10:00 a.m. and noon, and 2:00 p.m. to 6:00 p.m. To arrange for earlier or later check in, please email Professor Sandoval at: Csandoval@scu.edu. At check-in you will obtain room assignments and keys, schedule updates, Wi-Fi user name and password, Oxford visitor information, your meal card, and other program information. Professor Sandoval’s husband, Steve Smith, will join us on check-in day. He will be happy to have an opportunity to meet each of you before he returns to America on June 28. Professor Sandoval will be with you as the Program Director in Oxford through the duration of the program which ends on July 27.

Meals on your own on Wednesday. We’ll arrange for an informal no host Oxford pub visit on Wednesday night. Details will be provided at check in.

Thursday, June 28

Breakfast, purchased as part of program fees, begins. Magdalen Dining Hall (weekdays only)

9:30 – 10:00 a.m. Orientation. Summer Common Room, Magdalen College.

10:00 a.m. – 12:20 p.m: Lecture seminar meeting, Professor Roger Smith, Introduction to the Oxford Tutorial method; A Comparison of English and American Property Law, Summer Common Room, Magdalen College.

1:45 departure for 2:00 p.m. ceremony: Ceremony for Admission to the Bodleian Library, Chancellor’s Court in the Old Bodleian Library, off Broad Street. Assemble at and depart from the Porter’s Lodge at Magdalen College promptly at 1:45 p.m. Please bring a picture identification (e.g. driver’s license). Casual dress, no shorts please. Students will take a formal oath where you will swear not deface books or to throw the books on the pyre. The admission ceremony is important and necessary for your access to Oxford’s world-class libraries.

The Oxford Library admission oath: "I hereby undertake not to remove from the Library, or to mark, deface, or injure in any way, any volume, document, or other object belonging to it or in its custody; not to bring into the Library or kindle therein any fire or flame, and not to smoke in the Library; and I promise to obey all rules of the Library."

4:00 p.m. Introductory meeting with your tutor (unless co-director notifies you of different arrangements) at locations to be announced. You and your tutor will schedule subsequent meeting times and your tutor will discuss his or her expectations. You will meet with your tutor at least five times. Some tutors will set this first meeting as a substantive tutorial and send reading and assignments in advance. We will let you know about the reading by the end of May so you can prepare for your first tutorial. Please avoid scheduling a tutorial during other program events: 1) Lecture seminar meeting (generally Mondays from 4:00 pm through 7:15 pm, and Monday, July 23 from 10:00 am to 2:00 pm and 4:00 pm to 7:15 pm, and Wednesday July 3 and July 11 from 4:00 pm to 7:15 pm), the tour of the Oxford courts (July 12), and the tour of “legal London” (July 18).

Friday, June 29

9:15 departure for 9:30 Orientation and Induction to the Bodleian Law Library: Assemble at and depart promptly from the Magdalen Porter’s Office, Orientation and induction to Bodleian Law Library (St. Cross building), 9:30-10:30. Casual dress, no shorts please. Students will receive an introduction to the Bodleian law library system and library privileges.

The Bodleian does not provide summer law students with Westlaw or Lexis access. Please check with your home institution on Westlaw and Lexis access during the summer to support your research.

Professor Josephine Van Zeben will hold her first tutorial meeting with her Comparative Environmental Law students following the Bodleian Law Library orientation. Time tbd. Worcester College, Oxford.

Afternoon study on your own to prepare for your first tutorial meeting. Mornings, afternoons, or dates for which no activity is listed are for your tutorials, research, study, and academic preparation.

Sunday, July 1, (optional Port Meadow walk and pub visit, but a lot of fun)

11:30 a.m. – midafternoon: Perch Riverside Pub and Restaurant, Binsey Village, Oxford: <http://the-perch.co.uk/>. The Perch is located on Port Meadow, approximately 3.6 miles from Magdalen College. We’ll meet at the Magdalen College Porter’s Lodge at 11:30 a.m. to walk to the Perch and see some of the Oxford City sites along the way. Wear comfortable, sturdy walking shoes as we’ll walk through the Oxford City Center to Port Meadow, then walk on the meadow path which may be muddy, cross the river to the Perch and its beautiful garden. Port Meadow is one of the largest commons in England. The Oxford City Council website, explains the history of Port Meadow: https://www.oxford.gov.uk/info/20003/parks_and_open_spaces/823/port_meadow, “In return for helping to defend the kingdom against the marauding Danes, the Freemen of Oxford were given the 120ha of pasture next to the Thames by King Alfred who founded the City in the 10th Century. The Freeman's collective right to graze their animals free of charge was recorded in the Domesday Book in 1086 and has been exercised ever since." Port Meadow is a wonderful counterpoint to the much-touted "tragedy of the commons" as it has successfully served and been owned in common by the people of Oxford for more than one thousand years. We'll take taxis or walk back, depending on the weather. Lunch will be hosted by the program.

Monday, July 2

4:00 – 7:15 p.m.: Lecture seminar meeting, Professor Ruvi Ziegler, The Status and Rights of United Kingdom (UK) Citizens Living in the European Union (EU) and EU Citizens Living in the UK After Brexit, Summer Commons room (Magdalen College). A tea break will be served.

Wednesday, July 4

4:00 – 7:15 p.m.: Lecture seminar meeting, Professor Catherine Sandoval, Internet Neutrality Protects Democracy, Critical Infrastructure, and the Economy in the Cybertroop Era; Comparison of U.S. and EU Laws and Regulations, Summer Commons room (Magdalen College). A tea break will be served.

Monday, July 9

4:00 – 7:00 p.m.: Lecture seminar meeting, Professor Peter Mirfield, Sovereign Parliament, Summer Commons room (Magdalen College). A tea break will be served.

Wednesday, July 11

4:00 to 6:00 pm: Lecture seminar meeting, Barrister Lucy Tapper, "Ethical Duties and the Moral Code of Criminal Defense Lawyers," Summer Commons room (Magdalen College).

Thursday, July 12:

Tour of the Oxford Criminal Courthouse. Observe proceedings. Comments and tour by Barrister Lucy Tapper. Tentative time: 9:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m.

Monday, July 16

4:00 – 7:15 p.m. Lecture seminar meeting, Professor Susan Lamb, "Victim participation in Khmer Rouge International Criminal Tribunals," Summer Commons room (Magdalen College). A tea break will be served.

Paper outline due to Professor Sandoval, 3:30 pm. Comments on your outline will be returned by July 20. The Outline should discuss your paper topic and the major subjects to be analyzed in your paper. Professor Sandoval will make an appointment with each of you during the program to discuss your paper, and is available throughout the program to discuss your paper and the tutorial program.

Wednesday, July 18

Field trip to “Legal London” Visit the U.K. High Court. Lunch and presentation on International Sanctions Law, London law firm, details to be confirmed. Depart Magdalen College 6:00 a.m. View the handing down of a decision at the High Court, London, 9:45 a.m., visit a London law firm, then return to Oxford around 7:00 p.m. Transportation and lunch provided by the program.

Thursday, July 19

6:45 p.m. – 10:00 p.m.: Reception in Cloisters at Magdalen College and Group picture, followed by formal dinner at Magdalen College (at program expense). Professors offering the lecturers and tutorials and Oxford personnel who have helped us organize the program will be invited to the dinner. This dinner is a special and important event for the program and we look forward to your participation. “Smart dress,” business-type attire.

Monday, July 23:

10:00 am to 1:00 pm, with lunch to follow until approximately 2 pm, Lecture seminar meeting, Josephine Van Zeben, “European climate change solutions,” Summer Commons room (Magdalen College).

4:00-7:15 pm, Final Lecture seminar meeting, Jeremias Prassal, The Gig Economy, UK and EU Legal Issues and Perspectives, Summer Commons room (Magdalen College).

Thursday, July 26

Last evening lodging provided at Magdalen unless other arrangements earlier made directly with Magdalen (ask Director for information)

Last day for tutorials.

Friday, July 27

Last prepaid breakfast at Magdalen.

9:00 a.m. to noon: Check out with the Program Director to return keys. Please email Professor Sandoval in advance if you need to arrange a different check-out time.

August 3: Optional paper DRAFT due to Professor Sandoval

If you would like Professor Sandoval to review a draft of your paper submit it to her at Csandoval@scu.edu by Friday, August 3 at 11:00 p.m. (Eastern Standard Time). Your draft should be fully and properly proofread, using footnotes in full bluebook style. Your draft can repeat full citations in place of the id. citation to facilitate revisions for your final paper. Drafts that are poorly proofread, with citations obviously missing or in error, will be returned without full review and will preclude an “A” grade for the paper. Cite sources appropriately, both for the DRAFT and for the final paper. Please submit a well-prepared, solid draft with proper citations and footnotes and good legal analysis reflecting your research and the writing skills you honed from your Oxford tutorials. Both your paper Draft and final paper are subject to Santa Clara University School of Law’s Academic Integrity policy available at: <http://law.scu.edu/bulletin/academic-integrity-policy/>. Please review the policy guidelines to avoid plagiarism. The Plagiarism policy applies to the paper Draft, as well as to the final paper. Citations increase the authority for your paper and should be used fully and appropriately.

August 24: FINAL Paper due to Professor Sandoval by 11:00 pm. (PACIFIC Standard Time)

Submit your final 20 page paper (approximately 6,500 to 7,000 words) to Professor Sandoval at Csandoval@scu.edu by Friday, August 24 at 11:00 p.m. Pacific Standard Time. Your final grade will be submitted shortly after this date so extensions will not be possible except for extraordinary reasons such as medical excuse with a doctor’s note. Papers will be graded based on the depth of your analysis and research, legal analysis and argument, organization, writing, proofreading, proper use of citations, and bluebooking. Papers will be graded by Professor Sandoval and will result in the award of two credits when successfully completed.

Tutorials

Each student schedules five tutorial sessions with their assigned tutor. In agreeing to a schedule with a tutor please do not schedule tutorials at times that conflict with any of the seminar meetings or field trips. A program schedule will be provided to the tutors.

Planning your flights

You should plan your flight to the United Kingdom to arrive in London (typically Heathrow or Gatwick) not later than the morning or early afternoon of Wednesday, June 27, 2018, enabling you to reach Magdalen College, Oxford, prior to the end of that day’s check-in period at 5:00 p.m. Estimate 3 hours from landing at Heathrow to Oxford or 5 hours from landing at Gatwick to Oxford (immigration processing, baggage retrieval, bus ride). Please note that flights from the west coast will require departure on Tuesday, June 26 to arrive in the UK by June 27 for the check in at Oxford for the summer law program.

Please see the note above regarding ground transportation from Heathrow or Gatwick Airport to Oxford.

Unless you plan to spend time in the United Kingdom after the end of the program, you should plan your flight out of the United Kingdom on Friday, July 27, 2017. Some flights back to the United States may leave very early on that morning. There are very early buses from Oxford to both Heathrow and Gatwick. Please check the bus schedules prior to booking your plane flight so you can ensure timely arrival at the airport. If you plan an early or late flight, please make advance check out arrangements with the Program Director.