Dear Sydney Program students:

I'm looking forward to seeing you one week from today, 4 p.m., UTS Law Faculty lobby! As I've mentioned earlier, I'll arrive in Sydney Friday morning, and one of the first things I'll do is to get a new Aussie phone number - I'll send that out as soon as I get it. In the meantime, you can call or text my U.S. cell phone at 925-285-9883, and I'll be checking email as well.

I received the following instructions from UTS for accessing the materials for the Environmental Law portion of our course. At the end of the instructions, is your temporary student ID number and password for UTS. You may use these to login into UTSONline. You may also use them to access WIFI while on campus, and we will get WIFI instructions on the first day of class.

Prof. Dwyer told me that you do not need to print out any of the Environmental Law materials, but here is how to access them:

All of the Environmental Law documents can be accessed via UTSONline, the login page can be accessed at: <https://online.uts.edu.au/>.

Instructions:

1. On the upper right side of the login page, enter your UTS student/staff ID and password provided to log into UTSONline.
2. Cycle through the carousel to see the latest information in the UTSONline space.
3. Under Subjects, you will see Santa Clara Summer School at UTS – this is where you will be able to access all of Prof. Dwyer's content
4. View announcements related to UTSONline including maintenance windows and scheduled downtime.
5. Under the Resources section of the login page, you can perform a quick search of the UTSONline help pages if you require further information.m0133138

Temporary student ID and password for XXXXXX.

Please let me know if you have any trouble accessing the materials.
