Dear 2017 Costa Rica Summer Program Participants,

Only 10 days to go before the start of classes!

I have attached an updated syllabus and also PDF versions of the readings that are not found on the internet (I've highlighted these in yellow in the syllabus). Please review the syllabus before you leave for CR.

Unfortunately, the Inter-American Court of Human Rights has just informed me that there will be no English language interpreters for the hearing we were scheduled to visit on Wednesday, May 24th. Therefore, we will not go to the hearing as a group. Rather, those of you who understand Spanish or Portuguese are welcome to attend the hearing in the afternoon. Let me know who wants to go, and I'll go with you. You will need to fill out this form to be allowed in the public hearing room.

Consequently, I've modified the order in which we will cover material in class.

There's also been a change in the topics that the staff attorneys of the Inter-American Court of Human Right will discuss in their guest lectures on Week 3. The updated syllabus reflects these changes.

Let me know if you have any questions. Good luck with your final exams and have a nice trip!

In solidarity,

Fran
